THE ART EXHIBITION AT VIRGINIA OPERA HOUSE. - The loan collection of the Richmond Art Association is still on exhibition, and it is hoped the public generally will avail themselves of the rare opportunity afforded of making themselves familiar with works of real ment. Indeed, in almost every line of cultivated taste something is offered that will please. In the more practical specimens of ornamental architectural designs we noticed a very handsome and elaborate collection of designs for churches and private houses by Mr. Marion J. Dimmock, so well known to the community as a skilful draughtsman; be needs no further comment. To notice the excellences in every department one must go and see for an order abolishing the back-stand referred himself. The exhibition will not be kept open a great while longer.

Political Meeting .- The Superintendent of the City Central Committee, Mr. H. A. Jordan, has issued a notice for a meeting of citizens from each of the wards to be in attendance at the Mayor's court-room Saturday night at 8 o'clock to nominate city councilmen and justices of the peace for the election to take place on the 22d of this month.

There are no names mentioned in opposition to the present justices of the peace. and consequently they will be nominated unanimously.

It is not yet understood who will be provided further, that nothing in this act placed in nomination for councilmen if shall be understood to forbid the use of a those whose term of office expires in July hand- or minnow-net in taking small fish should fail to run. Those who are to be chosen at the coming election will be elected for a term of three years. It is thought that some of the old members will decline the nomination, if obtained. It will be so arranged at the meeting as to allow the voters from each of the wards to nominate their respective candidates.

The Musicale .- A fine programme has Abtracthy & Williams, Newton, N. C., write:
"We never sold a medicine that gives such general satisfaction as TUTT'S PILLS. The demand increases every day." been arranged and will be presented at the Beethoven musicale to-night. Visitors from Richmond are expected to be present. and will assist in the rendition of the programme.
